¹ Some early 1952 XK120 Roadsters may have 1951 specification hoods. Our hoods do not fit these roadsters. To determine what specification hood required, early style hood frames were chrome. Later frames, which our hoods fit, are painted grey.

² Early and late XK120 Roadsters had "long" and "short" tonneau covers. The difference between a "long" and "short" tonneau is where it is installed on the rear deck. The "long" tonneau installs at the same points as the hood using the same hooks and snaps. The "short" tonneau installs just behind the cockpit coaming, requiring the additional snaps. It can be installed with the hood up.
